DO NOT BOOK WITH PROVIDERS DIRECTLY

YTT funding Criteria: all akonga must be enrolled as Full time/ or Young Adults, enrolled in at least 3 subjects and engaged in their Te Kura subjects (not on Non Returners) but please discuss with me.

OR

PLEASE Email me Student ID, Name, Course description as well as External Provider. Please also include the specific course dates if specified or ask for next available course. Or if you have a query.
Natalie.jones@tekura.school.nz

As a rule with Public Courses, last day for bookings is 7 working days out from start date as per MOU agreements. 3 weeks out from start is an ideal so providers know if they have numbers to run the course or not.

To search this Catalogue click Control+ F (find) to create a search bar. Use key words, month, dates, course names and it will highlighted in Catalogue.

GROUP BOOKINGS are offered by many providers, typically however they have differing min numbers (11-20 akonga) to run.

I will run several Te Kura Group Courses they year that I will advertise on My Te Kura- My Korowai and in the STAR catalogues.

Security

The Learning Place

The search for security, police, and defence pathways is over. Secure a spot on this interactive course to unlock key skills for dealing with conflict situations

Day One: Somebody call 111 because today ākongā will be demonstrating how to respond in emergencies as a security officer. Ākongā will also understand roles, responsibilities, and legal authorities of security officers — including knowing how much force can be used in different situations.

Day Two: I spy a potential weapon, an intoxicated person, and a slippery surface. Today, ākongā will identify common hazards in security contexts and learn how to manage risks to reduce harm. Roger that! Ākongā will also learn and apply the phonetic alphabet, 24-hour clock, and brevity codes.

Day Three: Calm voices and safe distances are key as ākongā apply de-escalation techniques to a wide range of conflict situations. Today, ākongā will be using hazard management, emergency response, legal authority, and conflict management skills in simulated security roleplays as a security officer.

Wellbeing and Life skills

Confidence and Resilience

The Learning Place

Take a deep breath and relax as you explore stress management techniques, useful support services, and problem-solving methods.

Day One: Even simple problems can lead to stress, especially when we don't have effective ways to manage them. Learn to identify sources of stress in your life, explore stress management techniques and problem-solving methods to help alleviate these stresses. From breathing techniques to meditation walks, courses will be adapted to suit the needs and comfort levels of ākongā.

Day Two: Support is always near, and today ākongā will be investigating relevant support services available to them in Aotearoa New Zealand. Ākongā will also work to solve a complex problem of their own using problem-solving methods like pros and cons, brainstorming, and the six thinking hats.

Note: The content on this course may cause ākongā to bring up sensitive topics. Please keep this in mind when enrolling ākongā and inform us of any important information that we should be mindful of on this course.
